

Rakhi Kapoor Sharma

Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer

Rakhi is a forward-thinking leader in technology innovation. As Rigil's President and CEO, she's committed to making life better for every individual and community the company supports.

Rakhi founded Rigil in 2005 on the premise of always finding a better way - a better way to deliver solutions for customers and foster work-life harmony for employees. She has overseen Rigil through consistent annual growth from a small disadvantaged 8(a) business to a competitive force in the federal and commercial space. Under her leadership, the company grew to a workforce of more than 150, was appraised at CMMI Level 5 for development and CMMI Level 3 for Services, and has expanded its award-winning products, including StrataGem and iViews, into federal and commercial sectors.

In addition to managing multi-million dollar federal contracts, driving growth, reducing costs, and improving operations for customers, she directs the company's business strategy to position Rigil as a leading-edge partner, contractor, and employer of choice.

Rakhi is a graduate of the National Institute of Technology - Kurukshetra and Stanford University's Executive Program for Growing Companies. She is based in the Washington, D.C., area.
