

Sunil Datt

Deputy Director, Programs Delivery

Sunil has a passion for people and program management, which he gets to combine as Deputy Director, Programs Delivery, to make life better for Rigil's customers and employees. Sunil is responsible for Rigil's customer relationships and supporting our largest Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) contract. He also oversees Rigil's work with the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA).

Sunil joined Rigil in 2020 as a program manager before being promoted to Deputy Director in 2022. During his tenure, he has helped grow and mentor the company's next generation of leaders and managed the corporate center of excellence. Prior to joining Rigil, he held roles at The World Bank, IBM, and the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

Sunil is certified in Project Management Professional (PMP), Scaled Agile (SAFE), IT Infrastructure Library (ITIL), and government financial management (CGFM). He also holds master's degrees in economics, business, and political science.

Sunil resides in the Washington, D.C., area.
